

My husband is in the Air Force. Everywhere we have moved, K-Love has been on the air in that local community. This is a wonderful station that spreads a very positive message to everyone who listens. Please don't let LPFM stations take priority over stations like K-Love. You would be taking away the only encouraging and uplifting message K-Love provides to thousands of communities.